

Curriculum Vitae

Tae-wan Kim

President, Korean Institute for Future Education (KIFE)

Emeritus Professor, Keimyung University

Phone: 031-568-5405

E-mail: taewan@kmu.ac.kr

Dr. Taewan Kim is the president at the KIFE(Korean Institute for Future Education) and professor emeritus for educational policy at the department of education, Keimyung University. Recent years he had served as the president of KEDI(Korean Educational Development Institute). He had served on two Presidential committees – the Council on Educational Reform, and the Committee for Social Unification. He also had served on several governmental committees on various issues.

Taewan has served as the president of the Society for Educational Policies, and the Society for Economics of Education and School Finances. He now serves as the president of the Forum on Korean Educational Reform. Taewan has delivered keynote addresses at many national and international meetings on the issues of Korean education. He published a book called “Education in the Global Age” in 2013.